

Greater Vancouver Food Bank Media Consent and Release Form

The Greater Vancouver Food Bank (GVFB) requires acknowledgment of the following for any media content of a GVFB location, including photos, videos, staff interviews, and written content. Thank you for abiding by these requirements. Please read this document thoroughly before signing.

- I acknowledge that I must receive approval prior to recording any content at a GVFB location.
- I understand that all media content recorded at the GVFB is subject to approval by the GVFB Communications Department. Any image, video, voice recording, testimonial, and/or other likeness ("Image") must be sent to communications@foodbank.bc.ca for approval before being publicly shared.
- I acknowledge that unless I request the GVFB Communications department to review and approve content, I do not have approval to share any footage of the GVFB operations.
- The GVFB reserves the right to deny the creation and distribution of any shared media content that features the GVFB name, location, staff, and/or volunteers. This includes refusal to allow the presence of cell phones, video recording, and professional camera equipment that may be used in the creation of such items.
- The GVFB reserves the right to request edits or removal of content created at a GVFB location before its public release.
- I understand that clients of the GVFB must under no circumstances be included in any media. Cameras or recording equipment are not permitted in client spaces.
- I understand that for the reasons listed above, video and photo recordings may only be taken at our Burnaby warehouse for non-distribution shifts.
- I have read and understood the terms and conditions set out above.
