Important Information

Picking Up Food:

- Registered clients can pick up food once a week.
- If you are registered, you only need to bring your client card, as well as a bag, cart, or box to take your food home.
- Only members on the account are permitted to pick up food.
- Food distribution is closed at all locations on the last FULL week of every month.

Expiry Date for Cards:

- GVFB client cards are valid for food pick-up for up to one year. After a year, a client account update and check-in appointment is required.

Parking:

- Parking is for priority access holders and individuals with disability status.
- Single parents needing to bring their children in with them may park at our Burnaby location.

No Early Arrivals:

- Clients should not arrive or form lines before the listed distribution hours. Early arrival violations may lead to suspension.

No Public Washrooms:

- For health and safety reasons, we do not have public washrooms available. We thank you for your understanding.

Priority Access:

- Our priority access line opens 2 hours after distribution starts for the day.

Non-Profit Organization:

- The GVFB is a non-profit organization independent of government affiliation. As a result, we cannot guarantee the availability of specific menu items or quantities; our offerings depend solely on the donations we receive.
